Summer means boating and in the Catskills you can earn a free patch for putting a kayak, canoe or sailboat onto any of four New York City reservoirs. The Catskill Reservoir Paddler Patch is available to boaters who paddle the Neversink, Schoharie, Cannonsville or Pepacton Reservoirs anytime during the boating season, which closes October 12. Bring your own vessel, or rent one from a local vendor. This handsome patch, suitable for hat, backpack or jacket, is available for free from the Catskill Watershed Corp. To learn how to get yours, and where to find vendors, steam cleaning operators and launch sites, visit the Boating page at www.thecatkillregion.com, or call Diane, 845-586-1400, ext. 306.
