IV. CWC Official Newspapers

Tim Cox reported that the Windham Journal is no longer in business and Committee may desire to review its status as an official newspaper of CWC. Bob Pelham clarified that two pages of the Catskill Daily Mail on Thursday are titled the Windham Journal. Bob Pelham advised that he was fine with CWC relying upon the Mountain Eagle, another CWC official newspaper, and not to add Catskill Daily Mail. Alan Rosa replied that the Committee could later include the Daily Mail as an official newspaper if coverage of Greene County watershed towns increased. Upon motion of Bob Pelham and second by Tina Mole, Committee unanimously recommended to amend CWC Official Newspapers removing Windham Journal.
